How about us?

"How about us?" we have heard children ask when they are apparently bypassed for gifts or treats. "How about us?" we have heard grownups ask when an industry elects to locate in another community instead of one in the Carbondale area.

Yes, how about us?

The area was very fortunate in "landing" the glass products firm which has announced that it will locate in the former Tioga-Jamboree plant on the city's West Side.

As we mentioned last week, we should be thankful for the cooperation which went into enticing the firm here.

Yet, we wonder how many residents will ask, "How about us?" in the future when things don't go our way.

It's up to us!

And many of those who ask, "How about us?" may also be the cause of that industry locating elsewhere else. Yet, you read right!

Think about it.

When somebody from out-of-town asks your opinion of the area, what do you answer?

When visiting friends away, do you bad-mouth the area?

When traveling throughout the country, do you cut down the area when someone asks where you are from?

We know that there are people in the area who do that.

Are you one of them?

Think about it.

That man you met at dinner one night may be in man in charge of finding locations for the industry.

That clerk at the hotel may one day have the say as to whether his chain belongs in the area.

Don't cover it up!

And before anyone goes yelling about us being "goodie-goodie" on the area—a shall for the chamber of commerce or some like that—let us say that if sticking up for your hometown makes us who we're, we're guilty.

But we are not saying that there is nothing wrong with the area.

We are not saying the wrongs should be covered up.

We are not telling you to keep the bad things quiet.

We are just asking everyone to keep the good things about the area in mind, as well as the bad.

Let's work to change the bad, but let us also remember the good which has kept us here in spite of all the bad.

And where do you live?

Oh, a terrible, dull little town... Carbondale, Pa.

Tom Kenney — prose and verse

SHORT-FIRE VERSE

It's fun to take a pen and write a few lines of verse, and get it right. Not just rhyme without meaning, or "free-flow" lacking thought or meaning.

Participles, nouns, verbs and more; ideas emerge from the writer's store. He's got to have words and use them well, short story in rhyme, he's opted to tell.

WE WERE among those who were thrilled to hear Moore yell, "Hi, YO SILVER!" as he neared the intersection of Church and Salem.

HE REALLY thrilled the guests over at the Carbondale Nursing Home from the reports we got. A real gentleman from what we heard (and we've heard anything differently yet).

OUR CAR OF THE WEEK is the Hay-berg, introduced in 1967.

AND SO THERE WE WERE — surrounded by thousands of people who were just waiting to get to see Clayton Moore. And we thought that they all wanted our autograph.

Book store renovations

A major renovation of the United Churches Book Store at 526 Spruce Street, Scranton, has been completed in an effort to provide even more efficient service and to demonstrate its faith and support in the city's downtown revitalization program.

Announcement of the project was made by Victor C. Pollock, treasurer of the J.P. Redington Company, and chairman of the business operation committee of the United Churches of Northeastern Pennsylvania, which operates the bookstore.

Pollock, a member of Clarks Summit United Methodist Church, said renovations include new display showcases and carpeting at a cost of some $3,500.

"The renovation concept was developed by the store's new and energetic young manager, Mrs. Cheryl Guse, and was then reviewed by the business operation committee," Pollock said.

Pollock added that an open house has been scheduled for early September by Mrs. Guse and her assistants.

Meanwhile, the bookstore will sponsor a Sunday School Workshop from 9 a.m. until noon, Saturday, Oct. 3, at Covenant United Churches of Northeastern Pennsylvania, 550 Madison Ave., Scranton. Among materials on display will be Standard, Scripture Press, David C. Cook, and other religious titles. All Sunday School personnel are welcome for reservation call the bookstore, 344-1195, or the United Churches, 347-4730.

Veterans sought

World War II veterans who served with the 10th Infantry, 28th Division, will hold their 13th annual reunion on Oct. 9, 10, 11, in Scranton at the Holiday Inn (Downtown).

A summary of the 1981 reunion program is as follows:

Friday, Oct. 9, arrival and registration. Hospitality room opens at noon. Motel-sponsored tours of interest areas are available.

Saturday, Oct. 10, 10 a.m., hospitality room and registration; 1 p.m., reunion banquet, live band, hospitality room, and open bar.

The cost is $20 per person — includes the banquet, live band, hospitality room, and open bar.

Motel reservations are extra. Reservations for the reunion should be made by Sept. 30.

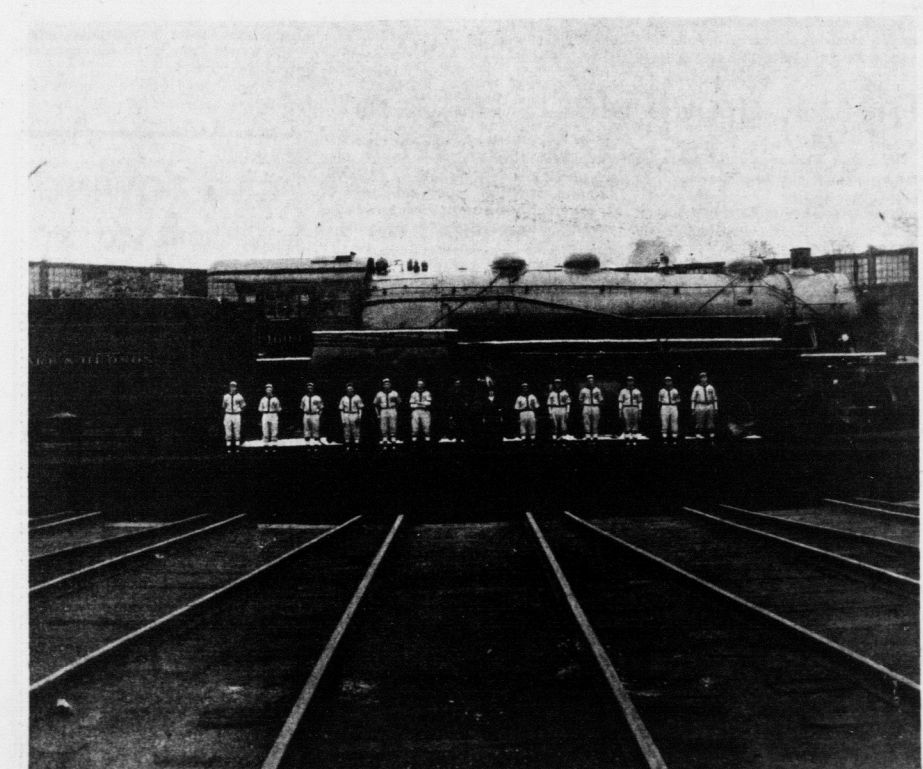

Send checks payable to Harry M. Kemp, treasurer, 1314 Sylva Terrace NW, Olympia, Wash. 98502.

For additional information, contact John B. Salk, 631 3rd St., Duryea, Pa., 16842, 457-2393.

Penn State appoints Dennis Kutch

Dennis Kutch, Jernyn, has been named an assistant professor in the engineering department of the Pennsylvania State University.

Dr. James D. Gallagher, director of the department, announced the appointment.

Kutch received his B.S. degree in aerospace engineering from the Pennsylvania State University. He earned M.S. degree in physics from the University of Scranton and received his Ph.D. in physics from Colorado State University.

He engaged in graduate studies in the field of solar energy.

He served as an engineering instructor and director for the Solar Energy Study and Research Center, Keystone Junior College, prior to his appointment at Worthington Scranton Campus.

Professor Kutch has authored a book review column for "Solar News" and has performed research on flat plate solar collectors. He has designed and installed several solar energy systems in the Northeastern Pennsylvania area.

A member of the International Solar Energy Society, Middle Atlantic Solar Energy Society, and American Society of Highway Engineers, Professor Kutch is married to Mrs. Mary Ann Kutch, who is the former Arlene Sokalsky, and daughter, Lara Ann, Nancy Ann, Collette Lynn and Rachel Lynn.

For further information phone 961-4311.

Hypnotist brings show to campus

Award-winning hypnotist James J. Maps will bring his show, "PSI — A Journey Into The Imagination," to the Pennsylvania State University.

Maps, a professional hypnotist, has been performing for over 15 years. He has given over 1,000 performances and was recently named "Campus Entertainer of the Year." In addition to entertaining, Maps is also director of the New York Hypnotic Center, and has been involved with hypnosis since he was 10 years old.

He has been a member of the International Society of Hypnotists, the American Society of Hypnotists, and the National Society of Hypnotists.

Maps will perform his show at the University of Scranton campus on Wednesday, Sept. 9, at 8 p.m. Tickets are $5.00. For more information, call 961-4311.

Lakeland starts classes Wednesday

On Wednesday, Sept. 9, students assigned to vo-tech in the afternoon session (periods five, six, seven and eight) will head to the vo-tech school in Scranton. Students in the Jernyn-Mayfield area may register for lessons at the Mayfield Elementary building on Saturday mornings from 8:30-10 a.m. from the Scott-Griffith area at a price of 15 cents per container for kindergarten students and 20 cents per container for students in grades one to six. The first day of school will be on Wednesday, Sept. 9. On Friday, Sept. 11, the second milk order will be taken for the following week and will be taken weekly thereafter. Information concerning the operation of the elementary program is contained in the parent handbook which will be issued to all students on the first day of school. Applications for free and reduced lunches and student insurance forms will be sent home with the students as soon as they arrive. Students attending the new Lakeland Elementary School in Scott should bring a bag lunch until further notice as the cafeteria is not ready for occupancy. Special letters have been sent to all kindergarten parents and parents of new Lakeland Elementary students concerning pertinent information on school opening. Any parent who has not received a letter should contact the Elementary office at 254-9488. Parents of children attending Lakeland for the first time should register their children prior to the Sept. 9 opening day since no registration will be accepted during regular school hours the first three days of school.

On Wednesday, Sept. 9, students assigned to vo-tech in the afternoon session (periods five, six, seven and eight) will head to the vo-tech school in Scranton. Students in the Jernyn-Mayfield area may register for lessons at the Mayfield Elementary building on Saturday mornings from 8:30-10 a.m. from the Scott-Griffith area at a price of 15 cents per container for kindergarten students and 20 cents per container for students in grades one to six. The first day of school will be on Wednesday, Sept. 9. On Friday, Sept. 11, the second milk order will be taken for the following week and will be taken weekly thereafter. Information concerning the operation of the elementary program is contained in the parent handbook which will be issued to all students on the first day of school. Applications for free and reduced lunches and student insurance forms will be sent home with the students as soon as they arrive.
